Chariton Courier.

C. P. VAND VE Editor and Prop'r.

KEYTESVILLE, MISSOURI. Entered at the post-office at Keytesville, Mo. as second-class mail matter.

Friday, Sant. 3tt. 1892.

Wasn't the rain glorious?

Come to the fair next week.

Howard Owen is in St. Louis.

County court convenes next Monday.

the first of this week.

Pictures taken in cloudy as well as day last week. fair weather at the Keytesville hotel tending the full festivities in St. Louis | ment license. this week.

Several horses are in training at the Keytesville fair grounds for the fair next week.

Rev. J. P. Rice, the new Methodist pastor, will preach at Centenary Chapel next Sunday, morning and evening.

The Keytesville fair this year promises to be better than ever before. Everybody and all other people should be here.

W. H. Hayes, of Salisbury, is on duty at the Bank of Keytesville as assistant cashier and will be with us until after the fair.

y the Mexico Enamel Photo Co. Prices the lowest. Satisfaction guaranteed. Keytesville hotel.

n that city. A good starter.

Call at the Keytesville hotel and xamine the photos made by the Mexotel. No sittings after Oct. 8.

tamine the photos made by the Mex- ed to $1,600 in the aggregate. Enamel Photo Co. Operate at itel. No sittings after Oct. 8.

e city dads.

abinet photos, $3 per dozen; Man.

abinet photos, $3 per dozen; Manphotos, $2.50 per dozen. Mex-Enamel Photo Co., at Keytesville l. No money paid 'till the work lelivered. Satisfaction guaranck and continued all that night coughing most of the next day. It was y needed, hence was warmly wel-

L. R. Perkins, of the Forks of ton, has rented the A. C. Vanproperty in the north part of and will move to Keytesville. me, doctor, to your and en & Sasse will open their new r shop to-morrow (Saturday) ig in the old stand formerly d by Thrash Bros. The new vite you to call and try their meats.

Wabash will sell round-trip to the Priests of Pallas part Kansas City, at one fare, on eday, Oct. 5th. Special train Kansas City at night after rade.

ain John M. Gordon, of Mex drain county, died at his resin that city, Tuesday morning 5th year of his age. He had cominent in the affairs of his or many years.

neak thief stole Bob Trent's

Several young men, at Salisbury, in training for the bicycle race at part of last week. the Keytesville fair next week.

George Dupuy and other Brunswick gentlemen will some time in the near future establish a bank at Clinton, North Carolina. Mr. Dupuy will be in charge as cashier.

William H. Warner, an old and highly esteemed citizen of Brunswick, died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. J. J. Abrigg Friday of last week in the 78th year of his age.

Robert McDow, an old and favora-Dr. G. M. Dewey was in St. Louis bly known citizen of this county, died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. John F. Shores, of Shelbyville, one

William Dean, of Marceline, was Pictures taken in cloudy as well as arrested Saturday of last week by a fair weather as the Keytesville hotel. deputy United States marshal, and taken to Chillicothe, on a charge of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Gaston are at- selling tobacco without a govern-

> J. H. Morgan, of Brunswick, left one day last week for the East, where he goes to dispose of a patent device for railroads. Just what it is we are not informed. Mr. Morgan is the patente.

The citizens of the "New Oklahoma," as the land just south of Brunswich is called, raised several thousand bushels of fine onions this season. The denizens of that miniature near Westville, Wednesday, Sept.

W. J. Bogard, of Mendon, was in Salisbury several days last week investigating the canning factory business. He is thinking of putting in a canning factory at Mendon in Good photos any kind of weather the new defunct creamery building.

W. W. Riddle, of Rothville, one of Chariton county's most successful farmers, is lying dangerously ill at Members of the Christian church, Los Angeles, California, where he t Mendon, have raised $500 to in- had gone several weeks ago on est in building a Christian church pleasure trip. His wife left Rothville for Los Angeles Friday of last week.

John Beam, ex-commissioner of the public schools of Barton couno Enamel Photo Co. Operate at ty, who was arrested in Arkansas some time ago on a charge offogery is being tried for the offense at La Call at the Keytesville hotel and mar this week. Hisforgeries amount-

The Rev. H. H. Johnson, of Bristol, England, arrived at Marceline Brookfield has abandoned her one day last week. He was assigned etric lights. They cost the city to duty in that city by the late con-,600 a year, and the luxury prov- ference of the M. E. Church, South. too expensive in the opinion of Mr. Johnson is said to be a cultured young man.

to photos, $2.50 per dozen. Mex- his home in Kentuckey to Fort lady was taken to Nevada, Vernon sally conceded, and both Major Warenamel Photo Co., at Keytesville Worth, Texas, died very suddenly on county, where a mad-stone was ap- ner and Col. Stone ordered their el. No money paid 'till the work a Missouri, Kansas & Texas pasdelivered. Satisfaction guaran- sengertrain, near Higber, Randolph county, Tuesday afternoon. The remains were taken to Fayette.

Miss Etta Mary Cox, of Richland township, Vernon county, who has been confined to her bed for the last fifteen months with hiccoughs, has just been relieved and is in a fair gentle rain commenced to fall way to recover. She was reduced to Tuesday night about 8:30 a mere skeleton by continual hic-

> Have your photo taken at the Keytesville hotel by E. N. Howe, of the Mexico Photo Enamel Co. He is thoroughly up in the business, having had over twenty years, experi ence. He guarante s satisfaction, and you pay nothing until your photos are delivered.

> C. W. Bates, who has been running a general store in the Winfree build ing for the past six months, wound up his affairs here Saturday, and is now in quest of a location. Mrs. C. P. Vandiver is now occupying the Winfree building with her stock of millinery and fancy goods.

> Charles Heinz, his wife and two daughters, Miss Allie and Miss Emma, of Hamilton, Caldwell county, were all thrown from a carriage Saturday evening of last week by a runaway team, and all seriously burt. Mr. Heinz' skull was fractured and his recovery is doubtful.

John Bigman, a railroad man with headquarter at St. Joseph, and his wife were returning from a party Monday morning in company n his delivery wagon while with several friends, when he sudon Bridge street last Satur | denly drew his knife and cut his ae fellow that would steal wife's throat from ear to ear. nt's coat-well, would steal then fled and was still at large at too, if the opportunity last accounts. His dastardly deed is assigned to jealousy.

J. M. Collins, of the Mendon Cit-

Mrs. E. A. Stevens.

Sedalia last night to meet with the P.-S. advertising committee of the Missouri Press association.

A crowd of colored picnicers broke down their vehicle last Sarurday while crossing the street car track near T. P. Wood's livery stable.

The Northeast Missouri Press as sociation meets at Brookfield October 13th and 14th. Quite an interest ing program has been arranged.

M. P. Chapman, living a few miles north of town, has rented property in Salisbury and will make that city the home of himself and family some time in the near future.

The tomato crop in the vicinity of Salisbury is almost a total failure this year. We have not heard what effect this is going to have on the dignity of the state was upheld by Salisbury canning factory.

Mr. Mack Henry and Miss Allie E. Conrad were married at the residence of the bride's father, J. F. Conrad, eldorado are known by their breath. 21st, 'Squire J. T. Robinson seal ing the marriage vows.

> Our esteemed fellow-townsman, Dr. James A. Egan, was in Salisbury last week looking for a business location. We should be sorry to loose Dr. Egan from Keytesville, as he is one of our most enterprising and useful citizens.

> Jesse Haston, a former citizen of Howard county, was nominated by the Democratic party of Montana last week for state treasurer. Mr. Haston is a brother of Mrs. John R. Broadus, living a few miles northwest of Keytesville, and is well known to many citizens of this county.

At the Macon county circuit court held in Macon City last week, Judge Ellison granted Mary E. Mayfield a divorce from her busband, Isaac Mayfield. The wife is 77 years of age the husband 73. They lived together as man and wife for 53 years, then found marriage afailure.

Mrs. Susan Busby, of Barton cour. ty, was bitten severely Monday morning by a mad dog. Her lower ported from Triplett, and the Democratic nominee for governor. closed on account of the malady, at 1245 Franklin avenue when in child of Robt. Waugh died of diph- of beauty and interest. theria, and several other Samner children are very ill with the same disease, so says a special correspond ent from Triplett.

Myers, both colored, and a negro woman by the name of Kate Prath- Catholic church by Rev. Father Stoter were also connected with Waterson in making way with Mr. Wood's porker, but their jail sentences expired some time ago.

L. Cobb, of Slater, was in Keytesville Saturday and took away one of Keytesville's most lovable daughters. They hied not to their own matrimonial noose, bowever, but went to Moberly to attend the nuptials of Mr. Cobb's brother, Mr. S. P.Cobb, who was married at high noon Sunday to Miss Edna Allyn, of Moberly at the residence of the bride's par ents, in that city. The wedding was quite an elaborate affair. The attendance were: L. Cobb, of Slater, and ed that defendant took a change of Miss Mollie Grinstead, of Keytesville; venue to the Howard circuit court, Mr. and Mrs. John Treadway, of St. Louis, and D. F. Cobb, of Huntsville, and Miss Mary Dulaney, of Moberly. ford, special judge, where plaintiff was The marriage cermony was performed by Rev. M. J. Barker. Mr. Cobb

The Wabash depot at Ke tesville station is being nicely painted.

Charlie Lee, a Chinese student of have purchased bicycles and are now izen, visited his family here the latter | the Drake university, of Iowa, was in Salisbury last week. He was on a visit to his fellow-countryman, Mrs. Mailander and Miss Brignon, Wah Hop, proprietor of the Salisof Somawank, Ill., arrived yesterday bury laundry, and during his stay morning for a visit to their sister, in Salisbury the almond-eyed stranger delivered a lecture at the Christian church, which was largely at-The editor of the Courier left for tended by Bro. Gallemore of the > Roy Grayham, a 11-year-old son of Charles H. Graham, of Chillicothe, was killed, in that city, Monday by his feet catching in the spokes of a buggy wheel. He had caught on to the rear springs of the vehicle, like town boys frequently do, when one of his feet caught in the spokes resulting in his receiving injuries from which he died a few moments afterward.

> Walter Blakely was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $200 in 'Squire Adonis Anderson's court, at Mendon, Monday for felonious assault. Blakely assaulted Sam Dunham with a wagon wrench at a dance at Frank Leek's, near Menden, on the night of August 30th. Dunham was considerably battered up. At the preliminary trial the R. C. Ford and Ed. T. Miller while Luther N. Dempsey appeared for the defendant.

Lightning struck a flue on T. J Hancock's farm residence, occupied by D. Hollowell, three miles northeast of town, Tuesday night. One or two brick were knocked from the flue. The bolt than passed down the flueinto a stove up-stairs, thence on through the stove to the floor and from there to a stove on the lower floor, and from there passed through the lower floor and into the ground. No damage of any consequence was done to the house, but the family were badly frightened.

James Henry, of the vicinity of Westville, was arrested in Marceline one day last week and sent to the city jail. During the following night young Henry escaped from jail and is still at large. He is the same youth who figured in burglarizing a store, at Westville, a few years ago, for which he was convicted, but being penitentiary age he was let off with a sentence to the Boonville Reform school. He is a regular "Jim Henry" of a fellow and all round tough character.

Those of our readers who go to St. Louis to attend the fall festivi vies or the fair, should note the address of Strauss, the famous photographer of that city. The superior James T. Chroose, enroute from limbs were terribly lacerated. The quality of his work is now univerplied and which adhered for several campaign photographs from Strauss. We have an excellent specimen of his artistic work displayed in our Several cases of diphtherea are re-sanctum-a life-like portrait of our public school, at that place, has been Don't fail to visit the Strauss studio At Sumner last Saturday a little St. Louis, and you will find it a point

> An interesting event occurred at St: Boniface Catholic church, at Brunswick, Tuesday morning of last week. It was the marriage of Miss Geo Waterson is now the only Katharine McGraw, of Denver, Coloprisoner confined in the county jail, rado, and Mr. Michael J. Pender-He is doing time for killing and stea!- gast, of Kansas City, a brother-ining a hog belonging to Oscar Wood, llaw of Geo. Klingbiel, Brunswick's of the Forks of Chariton, some time popular cigar manufacturer. The last February. Geo. Ball and Harry marriage ceremony was conducted under the impressive rites of the ter. A palatable wedding breakfast was served at Mr. Klingbiel's. The newly wedded pair, happy in each other's love, boarded the afternoon train for Kansas City, their future

A 20-page brief in the case of Elizabeth Jane Moore vs. the Wabash Railway company for injuries received, while boarding a passenger train at Keytesville station in December, 1889, was brought to the COURIER office last Saturday at noon, and was in type by 6 o'clock that evening. The case goes to the Kansas City court of appeals by the railroad company's appeal. It will be rememberwhere the case was tried by jury last January before Hon. Thos. Shackelgiven judgment for $1,000 damages. Geo. S. Grover, Capt. J. C. Wallace. and his bride will reside in St. Louis. R. B. Caples and S. C. Major are attorneys for the defendant, while W. W. Rucker and Crawley & Son represent the plaintiff.

OMDANY

possible, cordially you want to make selected business your Fall and invite and the overflowing. 2 Winter strictly all departments. your dollars reach as accomplish that supplies ASH and examine basis. our 28

THE

口口

OL

100

MA

ON

Emporium largest you money on every credit system and sell Goods Clothing County, by opporrunity for cash DRY PANY S.ET Little Locals.

Come to the Keytesville fair. Please pay your subscription.

The "only" fair is the Keyteeville fair, October 4-8.

Call and see M. Henry's school shoes. Prices to suit all. Vote for your favorite young lady in our world's fair contest.

W. D. Vaughan makes his own tin cans, They are the best.

See the new style sailors and walking hats at Mrs. Vandiver's.

Have you paid your subscription to the Courier? If not, why not?

Before buying hardware see that you get G. M. Dewey & Co.'s prices.

Buy your stoves from W. D. Vaughan, and you will save money. New invoice of early fall goods, just received at Mrs. C. P. Vandi-

The Jewell cook stove cannot be beaten. For sale by Geo. M. Dewey Face veiling, kid gloves and other notions, just received at Mrs. Vandiver's.

School shoes in endless variety and at ROCK BOTTOM prices at Chap-

Before buying boots and shoes, call on M. Henry, Triplett, Mo, and get his prices.

Call and see Chapman Bros., line of fall and winter boots and shoes before purchasing. The most complete line of glassware and queensware in Keytesville can be found at Geo. M. Dewey & Co's. M. Henry, of Triplett, wants your produce and will pay you the highest market price in cash or trade.

We want buyers for flity sets of leavy, home hand-made harness cheap for cash. CHAPMAN BROS.

Gentle reader, look at the label on your Courier and if your subscription has expired, please renew as we are needing money badly.

Remember that with every year's subscription paid the Courier you are entitled to fifteen votes in our world's fair voting contest. We will sell you harness, saddles, bridles and collars of a better grade and cheaper than any house in Chariton county. CHAPMAN BROS.

Remember that Dr. R. T. Fowler. Keytesville's resident dentist, is prepared to do anything in the dental line, and at reasonable prices. Batisfaction guaraneted.

We will close out our entire stock of slippers, including Oxfords and Prince Alberts, at cost to make room for fall goods. CHAPMAN BROS.

School Children,

Saturday is the day for you to have your picture taken by the Mexico Enamel Photo Co., at the Keytesville hotel.

Rye Wanted.

Hansman & Rick will pay St. Louis prices, less freight, for rye delivered at their distillery in Keytesville Dont Fail to See it.

Fellows' Royal British and Farptinu Temple of Mystery will be on the Keytesville fair grounds during fair week. It contains many rare curiosities. Don't fail to see it.

Fair: Fair:

I will make during the Keytesville fair, cabinet photographs and large heads, aristo finish, at 10 per cent. discount on regular prices. A call solicited.

O. A. HOCKER, Keytesville's Photographer

Roadster Safety Bicycle Race.

The Keytesville fair has concluded to offer a premium of $25 for a Safety bicycle race, mile heats best 2 in 3, divided as follows: $20 to 1st. $5 to second. Five entries required and three to a start. Entry fee, 10 per cent, of premium.

Wood Wanted.

We want 50 loads of good wood on subscription. Winter is coming on and so is Christmas. But we hope you will bring the wood before either winter or Christmas comes. C. P. VANDIVER,

Pub. COURIER.